Update Letter

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week has flown by! So many lovely things happening in school! Children in Year 3, 4 & 5 have had Anti-Bullying Workshops, Year 3 & 4 have been busy rehearsing for their upcoming performance and Reception had a bumper Thursday with a parent workshop and lunch in school with their children. We were also celebrating National Science week across the school and it has been great to hear children talking using scientific language and having fun with various investigations. Lauriston also hosted a group of Hackney Heads and Executive Heads for a strategy meeting this week and I had the pleasure of chairing this. It was lovely to be able to host this event. On top of all that, we had individual photos for all pupils. So busy but so lovely!

Next week we look forward to welcoming Year 1 parents in for lunch with their children on Wednesday at 11:35/40am. On Wednesday and Thursday, we are also really pleased to host two exciting parental coffee mornings on Autism and ADHD, both at 9am. All parents are welcome to attend.

Very exciting news is that the famous Head of School Tea Party is making return this term! Class teachers will get the opportunity to nominate two pupils in each class who have demonstrated fabulous collaborative skills, shown themselves as consistently supportive and kind to all children. These children will then get an invite to a special Tea Party where I will perform the role of waiter! Fun times!
